

Being able to have a "Safe" family station is very important to me, especially with all the trash on TV. We have canceled our Direct TV to stop the filth from entering our home, so good positive radio is important. Lots of my friend and my kids friends listen to K-love, and it is nice to have it travel with us when we travel out of state. please don't displace K-love.